

MIDLAND CENTER FOR THE ARTS MUSEUM

MY FAMILY VISIT TO THE
MIDLAND CENTER FOR THE ARTS MUSEUM

My visit to the Midland Center for the Arts Museum.

- I am going to visit the Midland Center for the Arts Museum.
- I will hear many sounds and I will see many things.
- I can touch many things at the Midland Center for the Arts Museum.
- There are many different activities I can do at the Midland Center for the Arts Museum.
- I have to make sure that I stay by my grown-up at the Museum.

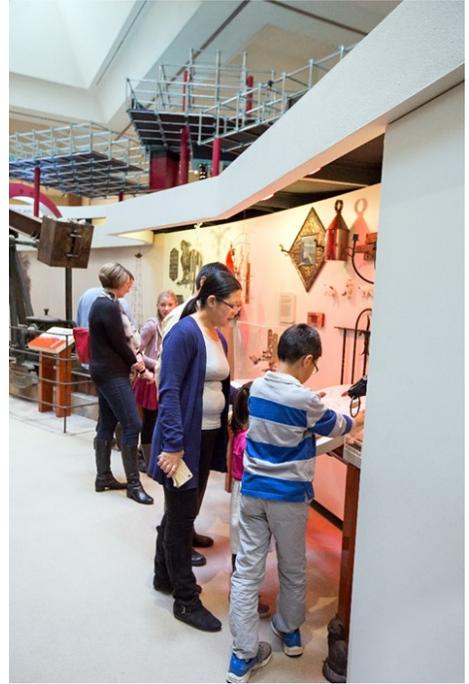

When I arrive...

- I may have to wait in line while my grown-up buys tickets.
- There is a gift shop next to the ticket line.
- We may go shopping in the gift shop.
- Some things are easy to break in the gift shop. I should be careful.

When I enter the Museum...

- There will be many exhibits to look at and touch.
- Some exhibits may move.
- I will see many different colors.
- I may hear many noises.
- I may hear crying, footsteps, talking, laughing, and music.

Getting around...

- As I explore the museum, I can use the stairs.
- I can also use the escalator.
- If I use the escalator, I need to make sure I am with my grown-up, my shoes are tied, and I face forward.
- I can also take the elevator with the help of my grown-up.

Things I Can Touch

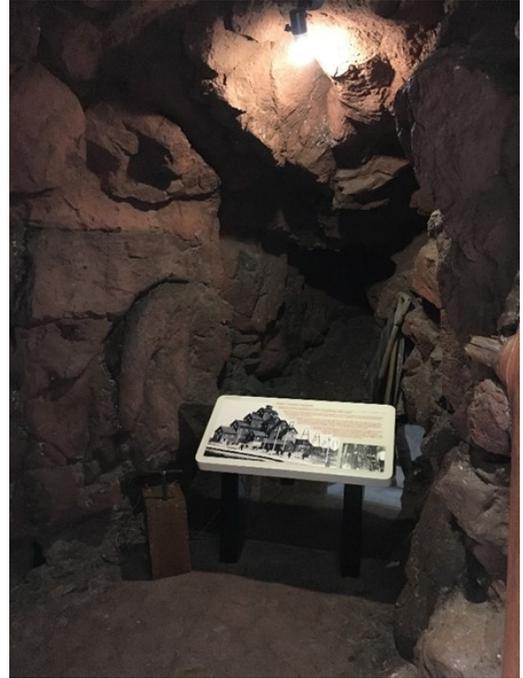

- There are many things I can touch at the Alden B. Dow Museum.
- I can build things.
- I can make a moving sculpture.
- I can even play music!

- There are also many screens that I can touch.
- I can create a painting on a screen.
- I can mix chemicals on a screen.
- I can use a screen to learn more about the exhibits I see.
- If I touch a screen, I should use gentle hands.

Some spaces may be dim...

- Some spaces may be dim or a bit dark.
- If I do not like these spaces, I can go with a grown-up to a space with more light.

Some spaces may be noisy...

- There are many sounds in the Museum.
- I may hear people making sounds.
- I may hear videos.
- I may hear loud sounds like drums.
- If I enter a room with loud sounds, I can go to a quieter space with my grown-up.

Spark!Lab

- I will hear many sounds when I visit Spark!Lab.
- This is a place where I can create inventions.
- I will find materials to work with on the tables or in bins.
- I can ask a Spark!Lab grown-up for help.
- Spark!Lab grown-ups wear orange aprons.

MIDLAND CENTER FOR THE ARTS
MUSEUM

Reminders for my visit to Midland Center for the Arts Museum.

- I have to always stay by my grown-up at the Museum.
- I will hear many sounds in the Museum.
- I can touch many things in the Museum.
- I will see many different colors at the Museum.